

LONDON CANALS

GOBOAT OFFICE: 07392550821

1 PADDINGTON BASIN
The terminus of the Paddington Arm of the Grand Junction Canal opened in 1801

2 MERCHANT SQUARE
Restaurants & bars with frequent special events

3 PADDINGTON ST
Opened in 1854. Underground, National Rail & Heathrow Express services

4 LITTLE VENICE
Surrounded by some of the finest early Victorian houses in London

5 BROWINGS POOL
Originally a holding area for boats, now a spot for boat trips and wildlife

6 REMBRANT GARDENS
Tranquil canal side gardens with Tulips presented from Holland

7 REGENTS CANAL
Opened in 1816, the canal links The Grand Union Canal and the River Thames at Limehouse

8 BLOOMFIELD ROAD
Beautiful and colorful Narrowboats moored on each side of the canal

9 MAIDA HILL TUNNEL
A 251m long tunnel. Remember to only enter the tunnel if the transit is clear of oncoming craft.

10 EYRE'S TUNNEL
A much shorter tunnel, at 48m long. Again, remember to only enter if transit is clear of oncoming craft

11 THE VILLAS
Nine breathtaking Villas built in Regents Park

12 REGENTS PARK
Scene of tranquility as the canal skirts Regents Park

13 BLOW UP BRIDGE
A barge carrying gunpowder blew up underneath it in 1874

14 LONDON ZOO
Watch out for the African Hunting Dogs and a huge aviary of exotic birds

15 CUMBERLAND BASIN
Moored boats and spectacular Chinese Restaurant

16 CAMDEN LOCK
World-Famous Marketplace

17 MURAL
Made by Stowe Youth Club & Artist Kevin Herlihy

18 THE FRUIT TOWER
Headquarters of innocent Drinks

19 DOCK KITCHEN
Stylish canalside modern European Dining

20 UNION TAVERN
Canalside Pub & Restaurant

21 KENSAL GREEN CEMETARY
Opened in 1833 and comprises 72 acres of grounds

20 THE FRUIT TOWER
Headquarters of innocent Drinks

19 DOCK KITCHEN
Stylish canalside modern European Dining

18 THE FRUIT TOWER
Headquarters of innocent Drinks

17 MURAL
Made by Stowe Youth Club & Artist Kevin Herlihy

16 CAMDEN LOCK
World-Famous Marketplace

15 CUMBERLAND BASIN
Moored boats and spectacular Chinese Restaurant

14 LONDON ZOO
Watch out for the African Hunting Dogs and a huge aviary of exotic birds

13 BLOW UP BRIDGE
A barge carrying gunpowder blew up underneath it in 1874

12 REGENTS PARK
Scene of tranquility as the canal skirts Regents Park

11 THE VILLAS
Nine breathtaking Villas built in Regents Park

10 EYRE'S TUNNEL
A much shorter tunnel, at 48m long. Again, remember to only enter if transit is clear of oncoming craft

9 MAIDA HILL TUNNEL
A 251m long tunnel. Remember to only enter the tunnel if the transit is clear of oncoming craft.

8 BLOOMFIELD ROAD
Beautiful and colorful Narrowboats moored on each side of the canal

7 REGENTS CANAL
Opened in 1816, the canal links The Grand Union Canal and the River Thames at Limehouse

6 REMBRANT GARDENS
Tranquil canal side gardens with Tulips presented from Holland

5 BROWINGS POOL
Originally a holding area for boats, now a spot for boat trips and wildlife

4 LITTLE VENICE
Surrounded by some of the finest early Victorian houses in London

3 PADDINGTON ST
Opened in 1854. Underground, National Rail & Heathrow Express services

2 MERCHANT SQUARE
Restaurants & bars with frequent special events

